

ISA Flute Committee Statement 2026

In December 2025 the ISA Flute Committee celebrated the release of the newly-revised Suzuki Flute School Volume 2. The new materials feature recordings by Boston Symphony Principal flutist Lorna McGhee and pianist Heng-Jin Park, offering reference recordings as well as accompaniment tracks with piano introductions. For the first time, audio tracks can be purchased on iTunes as well as from the alfred.com online store. The repertoire book is available both in hard copy and digital formats, also directly from Alfred Publishing.

Informed by extensive consultation with Suzuki flute teachers worldwide, the committee is moving forward with the revision of Books 3-5. Suggested additions to Book 3 have been tested with students in different regions, and feedback continues to be requested throughout the process.

The ISA Flute Committee is formed by:
